

UNIVERSITY ALLIANCE
OF THE SILK ROAD
丝绸之路大学联盟

Call for Papers:

Collection of International Cooperation Achievements in Higher Education under the Shanghai Cooperation Organization

To whom it may concern in [REDACTED],

This is an invitation letter from the Secretariat of the University Alliance of the Silk Road (UASR Secretariat).

With the ongoing progression of globalization, the significance of international exchange and collaboration in higher education has become paramount in fostering cultural interchange and technological advancement among nations. In order to promote collaboration in higher education within the framework of the Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO), UASR Secretariat cordially extends an invitation to representatives from distinguished universities of SCO member states, dialogue partners, observer countries, and notable figures in higher education cooperation alike.

We invite the university leaders or scholars in the your esteemed university to share the insight in current status, policies, and exemplary instances of international cooperation in higher education. Through this exchange, our intention is to facilitate the sharing of ideas, experiences, and the cultivation of innovation, thereby fostering collaboration.

Given the development of in global higher education, we extend a heartfelt invitation to the Distinguished President or a representative of your esteemed University to graciously contribute an exceptional paper.

丝绸之路大学联盟常设秘书处 Permanent Secretariat of University Alliance of the Silk Road

Add: Xi'an Jiaotong University No.28, West Xianning Road, Xi'an, Shaanxi, 710049, P.R. China
Tel: +86-29-82668236 Fax: +86-29-83234716 E-mail: uasr@xjtu.edu.cn Website: <http://uasr.xjtu.edu.cn>

I. Themes for Submission

- i. Sharing of Educational Resources and Cooperation: Facilitating the exchange of higher education resources to nurture collaboration in curriculum development, faculty exchanges, and other pertinent areas, with the overarching goal of elevating the educational standards.
- ii. Exchanges and Collaborations in Scientific Research Achievements: Sharing research achievements, facilitating transnational collaborative research endeavors, fostering technological innovation, and safeguarding intellectual property rights, thereby injecting renewed vigor into regional development.
- iii. Talent Cultivation and International Exchange: Strengthening international exchanges and cooperation among students and faculties, promoting innovation in talent cultivation, and cultivating the young generation with international competence.

II. Language Requirements

Submissions may be in Chinese, English, or Russian.

III. Content and Format Requirements

The submitted articles must be original and unpublished, with a length ranging between 10,000 to 15,000 words (including characters). Titles should accurately reflect the core viewpoints, contents, and scope of the articles. The structure should be clear and comprehensive, with precise and dependable data sources

IV. Submission Deadline

The deadline for submissions is April 30, 2024. UASR Secretariat intends to compile the articles into a collection, which will be published in both print and digital mediums by May 2024. The collection will be disseminated to relevant departments, institutions, and worldwide readers.

UNIVERSITY ALLIANCE
OF THE SILK ROAD
丝绸之路大学联盟

V. Submission

Please submit the electronic version of your article (in Word format) via e-mail.

E-mail Address: uasr@xjtu.edu.cn

We eagerly anticipate receiving outstanding contributions from your esteemed university! Through our collectively strive to enhance international cooperation in higher education under the auspices of the Shanghai Cooperation Organization, we are confident to embark on a new chapter in international higher education cooperation.

Yours sincerely,

the Secretariat of the University Alliance of the Silk Road